The Government of Indonesia notified the WTO Committee on Safeguards regarding the inclusion of 1 (one) additional 8-digit Harmonized System (HS) code, in accordance with the Indonesian Customs Tariff Book (BTKI) 2022, namely: HS 3901.40.00, to be incorporated into the products under investigation.

The inclusion of the HS code mentioned above was requested by the Applicant (The Indonesia Olefin, Aromatic, and Plastics Industry Association/INAPLAS)) on 15 April 2025 through letter No. 132-A/INAPLAS/IV/2025, on the grounds that the domestic industry also produces the like or directly competitive products with HS 3901.40.00 which likewise competes directly within the same market in Indonesia.
